

As an online shopping Customer, I can make payment using credit card so that can pay the product I want to buy

- Customer need to be registered
- customer should provide correct username and password
- customer should provide valid payment information
- customer need minimum of one element in his shopping cart
- Customer need to provide valid address
- The product should be available

As seller, I can add product for sale in the market so that my products can be seen by customers

- Product quantity should be more than zero
- Product must have name
- Product must have description
- Product must have price
- Product cannot be a duplicate of another from the same seller
- product can be added/edited/deleted

As an admin user, I can approve seller registration so that approved sellers sell their products on the site.

- User must be registered as an admin.
- User must provide the correct username and password.
- Admin can view and approve the list of newly registered sellers.
- Admin can view and approve the product reviews made by the customer