

Sequence Diagram

Use-case: Make Payment

Description:

Title : Make Payment

Actor: Customer/buyer

Description: Customer make payment to buy product

Pre - requirement: the customer should be already logged in to the system

Main flow/scenario:

User Action	System Response
customer/buyer selects his shopping cart	System display all the products in the customer/buyer shopping cart
Customer will select check out option	System display a form which collect customer's shipping address, payment information, billing address information
Customer will fill the form and submit it	The system will verify the information and display a placed order receipt, update the quantity of the products, edit customer's shopping carts

